Flute Salad 2018 Policies

Building

We are guests of the First United Methodist Church and must treat the building with respect and care. Water bottles with lids may be brought into the sanctuary for rehearsal.

Musical preparation

You will receive part assignments by email. This will allow you to print in advance and have some time to practice. If you have an instructor, we advise asking your instructor for help in learning the music ahead of time.

Participants should have pencils ready during rehearsal.

Conduct

Neither the First United Methodist Church nor the members of Coro di Flauti assume liability for bodily or instrumental harm during the festival.

Please do not leave your flute(s) unattended outside of its case. In addition, please use extra caution around instruments since there will be many flutes in the building.

Phones may not be used for talking, texting, or any other purpose during rehearsal.
